

Black Lives Matter

Black is Black
It's just a colour.
So why discriminate
One another?

Be proud of your skin
As a wise man once said.
Control your feeling
Of your future ahead.

Black lives matter,
We must stand for what's right.
Life is always
A racial fight.

Inner beauty and being fair,
The tone of your skin, we do not care.
In your heart is what matters most,
We don't care if you're white, so do not boast.

Black lives matter,
It's not a big deal.
Being kind
and naturally heal.
