

Racism needs to stop!

Certain people would never dare,
But skin colour, do you really care?

They have always said,
Black is a stain,
Purity is white.
But is it really true?
Is it really right?

I'm not convinced, ever since.
We need to negotiate.
Make a change, lets initiate.

There was once a man,
He is here no more.
George Floyd, I'm really sorry.
You don't need to worry
We keep running.

Do you remember the past?
The suffering slavery.
It's not fair.

But remember...
BLACK LIVES MATTER
