

Poem of hope

We've been in Lockdown quite a while,
It is getting hard to raise a smile,
The Government tells us to stay put,
While we have to distance 6 foot

Don't go out
So then Boris doesn't have to shout
We are at home, inside we have to stay,
Doctors and nurses have to go out each day.

Helping us to stay well,
Everyday we stay in our shell,
We try everyday, to fight and fight,
To be able to manage the plight.

In light of the troubles, we have today,
There is just a few things I'd like to say,
Although the days like this feel long,
Together as a country, we stand strong!
