

BLM

To all those black people who lost their lives,
You all suffered unfair demise.

Black lives matter more than ever,
All colour races get together.

Spread the message, spread the message,
Blacks should be trusted and should age.

They should never have to hide,
Just so they don't die.

No matter what skin, yours or mine,
You should always be kind, rain or shine.

~

By Jay

Year 6