

SWAN WAVE

CANVAS, PAINT 40X50CM

S W A N W A V E

This is a special painting depicting our Village Swan, Derek, who was recently killed by someone from Up Country, which was very upsetting. I have painted the Swan as a majestic wave. The painting is a conversation of me saying farewell to Derek and waving Goodbye.

The foundation of the wave is sculptured by a glue gun, and when it is painted it creates a shimmering effect. The painting contains texture and reflections as natural light moves around the canvas, giving the impression of movement. There is no physical movement upon the canvas only my emotional response as I grieve the loss.
