

What a simple world this is, they all love me,
but that is simply because I'm complicated
I'm more important than anyone in this simple world.
me, ME, not you, ME.
The men, they chatter, they smoke, they eat, they sleep, that's all they do.
I am so much more,
I am a horse, as white as gold
I am a horse in this simple world,
I am beautiful, they are not
I am gold, I am white,
Know my name, though what is my name?
It doesn't matter, Know it!
Remember who I am, I matter more than you even could,
I always have.
